

THE PATH AND THE PLAN

A SHORT GRAPHIC STORY ABOUT
FINDING A WORKABLE NEXT STEP.

BENJAMIN BRIXLEY

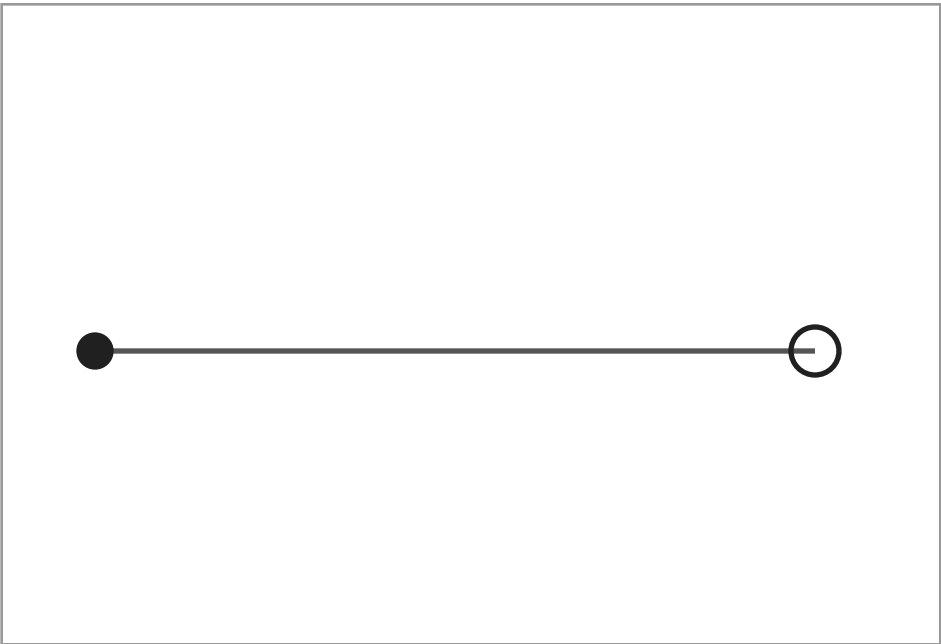

ORIGIN

Follow a line through a day

This graphic story uses a dot as a traveller, lines as possible routes and blocks as obstacles. It is an original visual metaphor. Read the caption, follow the diagram and use the facing page to explore your own version.

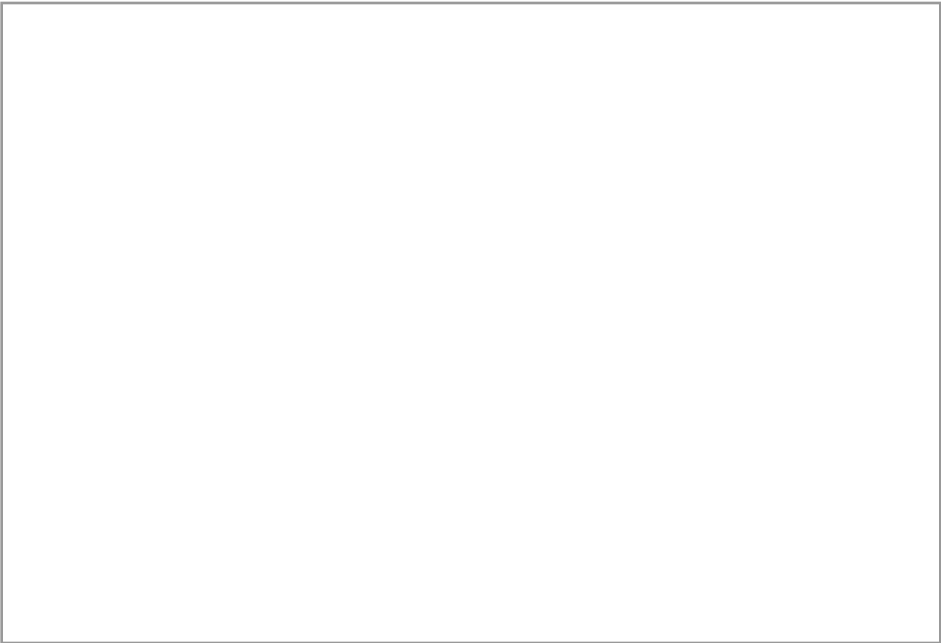

A route through the day

The traveller drew a straight line to the finish.

Draw another possible route

What would you add, move or notice? Draw a route and write a short caption.
